NEW SECTION  WAC 246-310-825 Temporary Emergency Situation Exemption	No comments	WAC 246-310-825(1)(b)  At 10/17 workshop, group decided to eliminate current temporary emergency situation language in WAC 246-310-825(1)(b) regarding disruption due to infrastructure issues and replace with language granting department discretion to determine whether event constitutes “temporary emergency situation.”	WAC 246-310-825(1)(b)  Removed current 246-310-825(1)(b) and replaced with:  (b) Any other temporary emergency situations that in the department’s discretion constitute a “temporary emergency situation.”
		WAC 246-310-825(2)(a)  At 10/17 workshop, group proposed amending current definition of “staffing shortage” at 246-310-825(2)(a). Group noted that it is difficult to define due to differing acuity.	WAC 246-310-825(2)(a)  Removed current 246-310-825(2)(a) and replaced with:  (a) “Staffing shortage” means that the kidney disease treatment center does not have sufficient staff to safely provide treatment.
		WAC 246-310-825(3)(b)  At 10/17 workshop, group proposed clarifying that for temporary emergency situations caused by staffing shortages, these facilities do not need to identify other facilities affected by emergency situation.	WAC 246-310-825(3)(b)  Added the following underlined language to WAC 246-310-825(3)(b):  (b) For temporary emergency situations other than those caused by staffing shortages, identify each facility expected to be affected by the temporary emergency situation.
