FULL FACILITY CLOSURE BED BANKING

The following information is used to evaluate the conformance of the project with all applicable review criteria in Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 70.38.115 and Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 246-310-396.

Please note the following definition:

"Effective date of facility closure" means:

- The date on which the facility's license was relinquished, revoked or expired; or
- The date the last resident leaves the facility, whichever comes first.

Information Requirements:

1. Effective Date of the Facility's Closure: April 19, 2021 [Last Patient Left]

2. Number of beds to be banked: 49

3. Is the existing licensee the building owner? No (Yes, go to question 5)

4. Does the building owner have a secured interest in the nursing home bed rights? Yes No X
In the event the existing nursing home licensee is not the building owner, the licensee shall provide:

- a) If the building owner has a secured interest in the bed rights, an original written statement signed by the building owner indicating the building owner's approval of the facility's closure,
OR
- b) If the building owner does not have a secured interest in the bed rights, a copy of the notice sent to the building owner by the licensee informing the building owner of the planned facility closure.

5. If the party making this banking request is other than the licensee, provide documentation of the secured interest in the bed rights.

6. Name and address of Contact Person throughout the bed banking period:

Greg Vislocky (360) 735-7155
Name Telephone Number
Address :
Greg Vislocky
7700 NE Parkway Dr., Suite 300
Vancouver, WA 98662
gvislocky@prestigecare.com

Please note: If the beds being banked are licensed as part of an acute care hospital and used for transitional care (TCU), skilled nursing care (SNF), or nursing home care and recognized by the Certificate of Need program as nursing home beds, I understand that the use of these beds for any acute care services requires Certificate of Need review and approval under RCW 70.38.105(4) (e).

I understand that Certificate of need review shall be required for ANY party proposing to re-license the nursing home beds. Need shall be deemed met when the applicant is the licensee and who had operated the beds for at least one year immediately preceding the bed banking, and who is proposing to re-license the beds in the same planning area.
